We Were the First . . .

"There's a place for us, somewhere a place for us." We ourselves have built this place with our hands, with our hearts and with our souls. It is a spiritual some-place and therefore will never die. To an outsider, it may be cement and brick walls, but to the premier class of STA, it is more than just a building; it is our life. It is the "Spirit of '68."

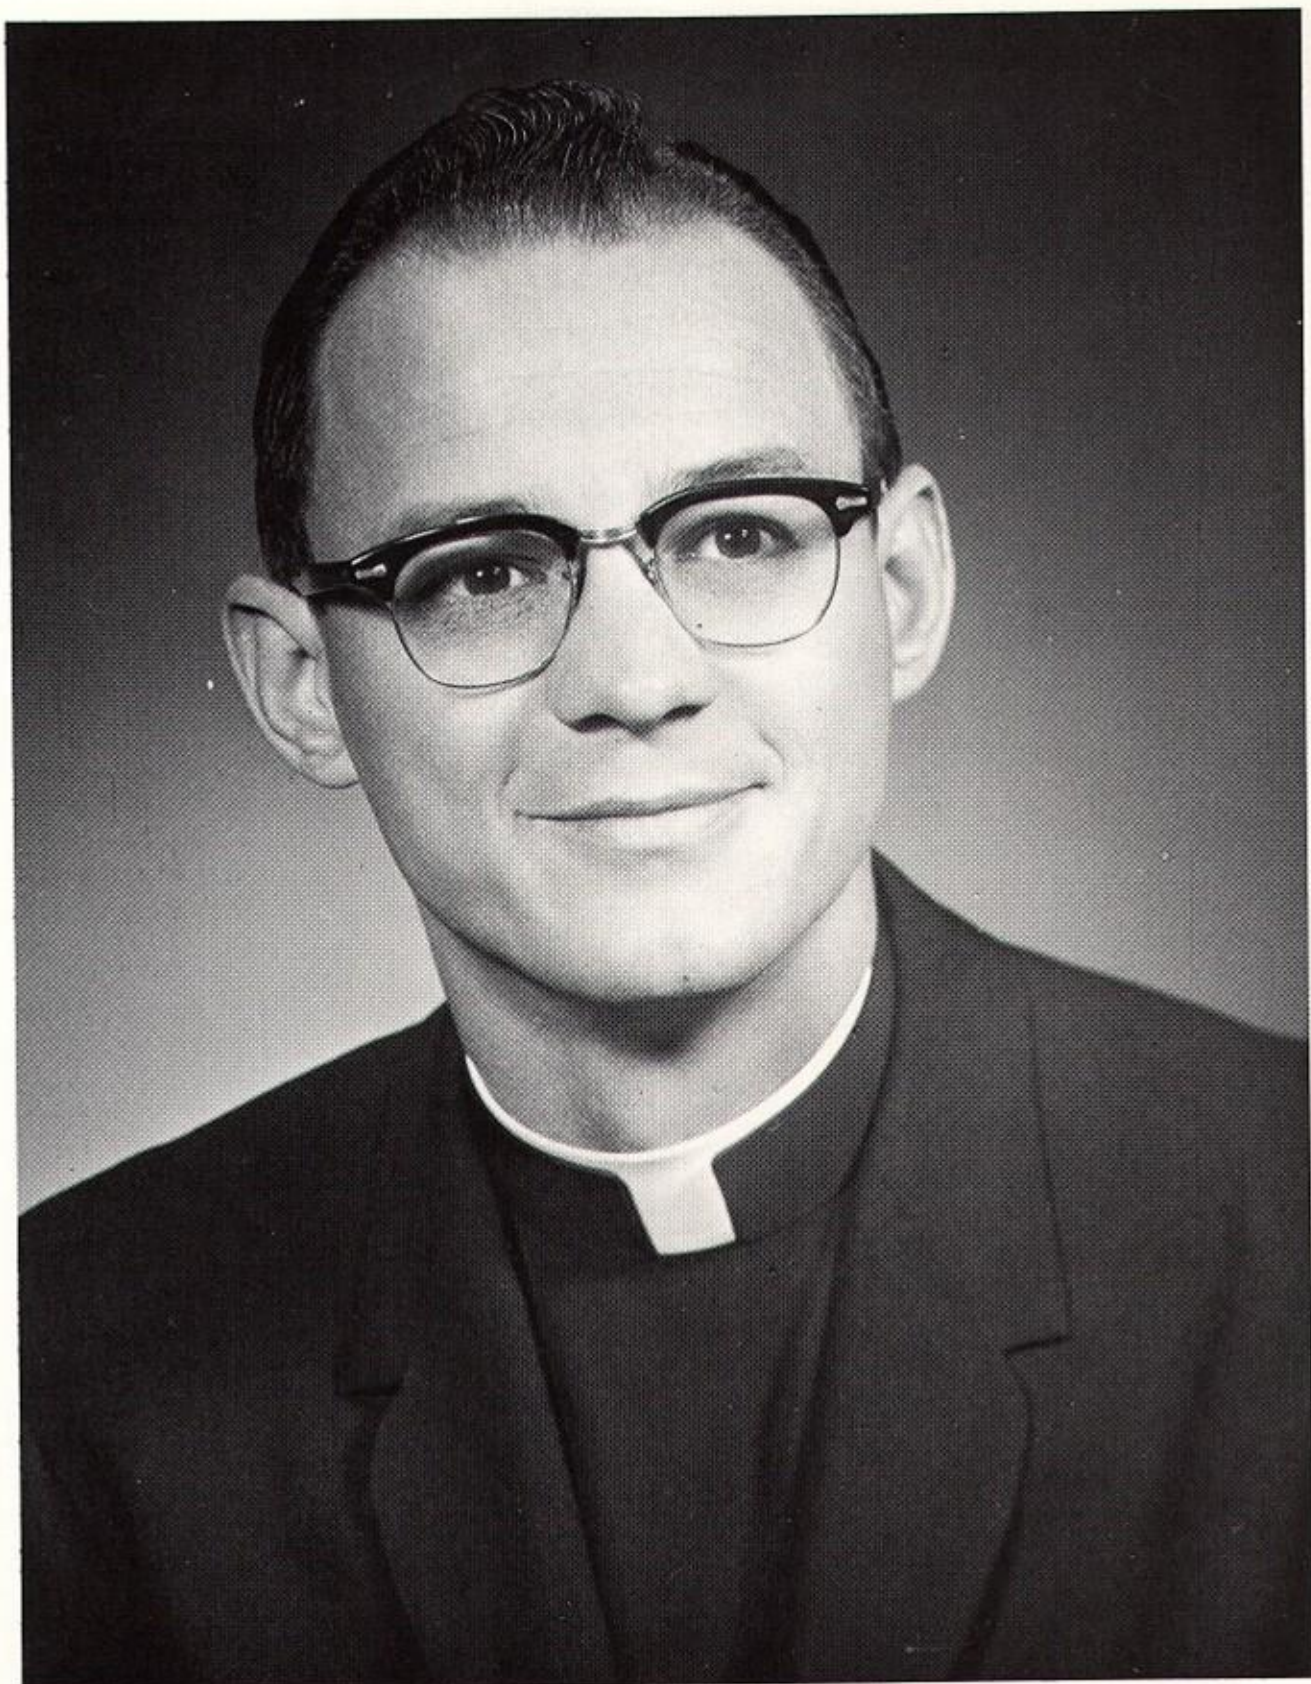

"Peace and quiet and open air . . ." Peace—that peace of mind we have learned to search for or may already have found through one another. Quiet—even in the bustling halls there was the quiet of individuality, yet fellowship. Open air—of the surrounding farmlands, of the freedom to express ourselves, to laugh when we were happy, to cry when we were sad. If ever we are lonely, we can remember that we are a part of the Spirit of '68—forever.

"We'll find a new way of living, we'll find a way of forgiving . . ." In our one-time world of football games and cheerleaders, assemblies and detentions, bells and classrooms, we have discovered a way of living. We have acquired at least the desire to better ourselves and our world. We have discovered the meaning of such words as unity, fellowship, "Up With People."

And a way of forgiving—we have found a way of forgiving injustice, intolerance, phoniness, superficiality, war. We have found a way of forgiving mistakes of ourselves and others, unkind remarks, criticism; we have found that besides forgiving, we must better this world. We must change all that needs to be changed and is in our power to change.

This is our somewhere—the world we will build, the world of our impossible dream—the world that began in September '64 with the Spirit of '68.

(May 3, 1931 — June 28, 1966)

The Spirit of Aquinas —

Our First Administrator, Father Emil Kalafut

"Every noble life leaves the fiber of it interwoven in the woof of the world."

His smile was a smile of peace, friendship, happiness, pain and sorrow. A smile to remember, a smile to live on forever.

His caring ... the caring for us. So much concern and dedication to his Premier Class, his reason for living.

The laughter, the spirit, the love expressed in his silence ... Even yet his spirit lives ... and will forever.

Sometimes words alone cannot express ...

Father Lawrence Fye
Administrator

Administrators of Trust and Encouragement

"Education should be as gradual as the moonrise, perceptible not in progress but in result."

Truth, scholarship, excellence—our goals as Aquinas students seemed always worth striving for with the trust and encouragement of our administration.

Dependable Leaders Preside Over 1st Student Council

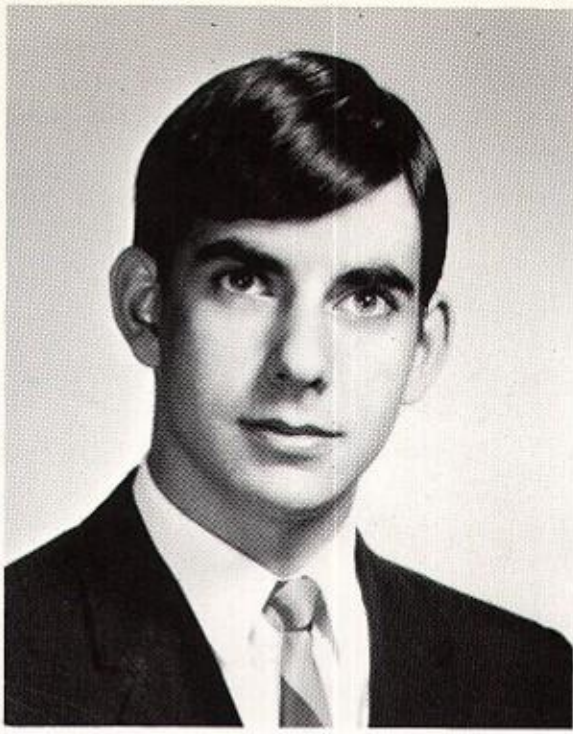

Student Council was something new and different at STA. Now because of the hard work put into it by its leaders, it is organized and it has taken its rightful position as the most important organization at Aquinas.

It wasn't an easy job being SC officers but it was their duty to start SC on the right foot so that it would be a successful council and continue to be one.

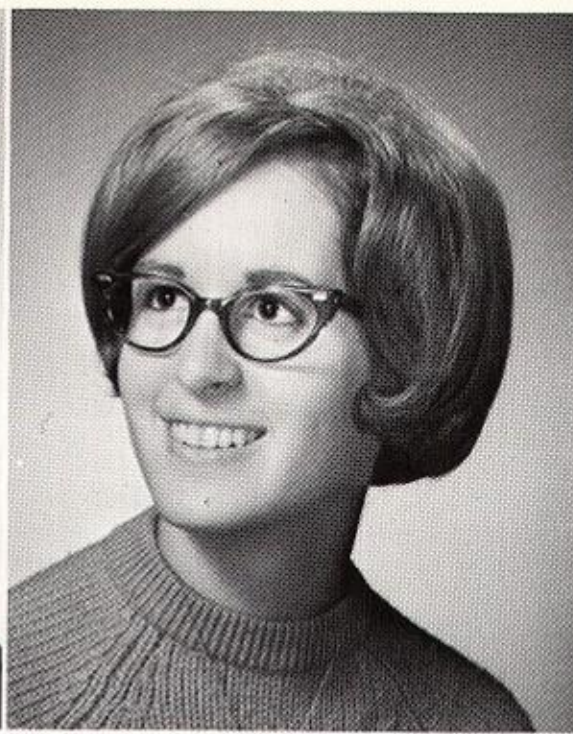

Under the leadership of its dependable officers and determined moderator, Sr. Michaellette, our Student Council has been formed into a smooth-running and successful organization.

Our first Student Council served as a successful student government. Here, representatives express their opinions in a vote.

Premier Class Leaders

A senior class at any school requires leaders to show the way. But the class of '68 at STA was the first senior class, and their leaders were among the best.

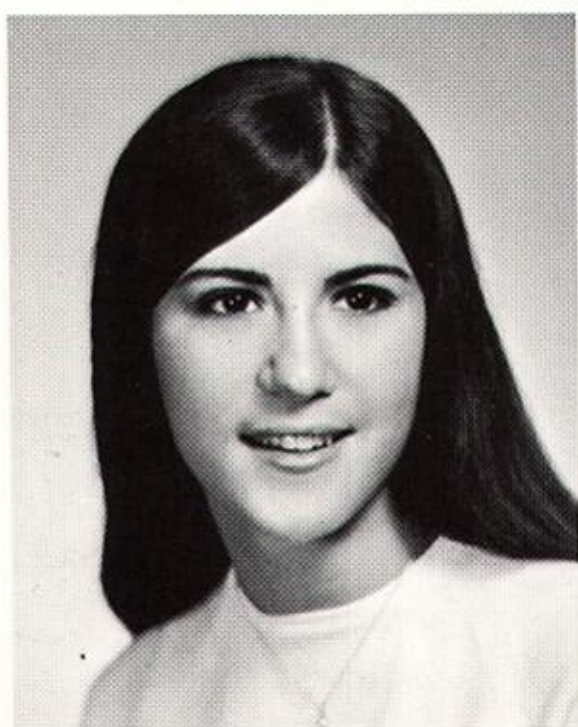

It was a difficult task, having no precedent to follow, but with the help and leadership of these eight outstanding members of the senior class many customs and traditions were established for Aquinas in the future.

"We're a school with lots of spirit . . ."

It was a special kind of spirit which engulfed both spectator and athlete; a spirit which prevailed in the exhilaration of victory or the anguish of defeat; pride shown by cheering busloads enroute to away games; the joyous eruption in the stands following a touchdown; the loyal return to the Aquinas locker room to comfort the defeated or sound the victory bell. It will forever ring in our hearts.

"... we're Aquinas Knights, hooray!"

Our senior football season was a time we had long awaited. It was a season of colorful posters, senior guys' special cheers, rain and a little snow, intangible little things we'll long remember. STA's Fight Song will be sung forever at Aquinas, but we are the ones who first sang it and we are the ones who will always be proud of setting the traditions of the St. Thomas Aquinas Golden Knights.

Mr. Tom Grisez and Mr. Nick Ross were a vital part of all school activities; always around to lock up, clean up, plug in, sweep up, or help find lost spot lights.

Ready to help us when we needed them and always ready with a smile are: girls' secretary, Mrs. Mary Ann McKelley; treasurer, Mrs. Ann Altieri; book store clerk, Mrs. Ann LaRocco; boys' secretary, Mrs. Rosemary Charles. (Missing is Miss Rosemarie Alonzo, secretary for Father Fye.)

The most appreciated people in the school were probably the cafeteria ladies: Mrs. Rose Shori, Mrs. Norma Callan, Mrs. Ann Eckroate, Mrs. Catherine Grisez, Mrs. Evelyn Hefflebower, and Mrs. Mary Julian.

No longer filled with the sounds of '68, but never to be rid of the spirit, the cafeteria rests quiet from that first empty freshman year of two 45-minute lunch periods to our senior year of four 22-minute lunch periods. It has become a haven for hungry STA'ers.

A rough schedule plus a winning spirit among the fightin' five, encouraging coach, and a robust crowd made for an exciting season our senior year, as was every basketball season at STA. Long will the spirited cry, "give me some skin," echo throughout the gym and long will the spirit of the '67-'68 basketball team be remembered.

The Highlight of our basketball season had to be when our fighting Knights surprised the Central Catholic Crusaders twice—68-51 and 68-52. The Knights always showed a lot of "go" and determination in gaining that winning attitude, whether they were adding another 10 points, planning defensive moves, or giving Coach Al Pete his deserved victory ride to the locker room.

Just as sweet smiles, short skirts, pep rallies, popularity and pride in victory are obvious parts of cheerleading, so too are soggy shakers, dirty saddle shoes, sore muscles, smiles in sorrow and tears in defeat. The 67-68 cheerleaders were the spark that ignited the school's fiery spirit.

There will be numberless cheerleaders in STA's future, but our first varsity cheerleaders can be proud of the traditions of enthusiasm, sportsmanship, undying loyalty and leadership they have set.

Class of '68 Captured by Mood

Who can forget the weekend of April 26—the weekend of STA's premier Senior Class play? It began with cancellation of Friday night's performance due to injuries sustained by Bob Logan (Prince Paul) in an automobile accident. Then came a splendid performance Saturday night and the weekend ended with a teary-eyed cast and a song-fest late into the night after Sunday's performance. Jo Wulf (Anastasia), Jim Lamiell (Bouine), and Kay Stemple (Dowager Empress), the three leading characters, displayed a calm professionalism in their natural-like portrayal of the personages. The rest of the cast including Bob Logan, Tip Haf Mark Frank, Denny Fahrni, Tracy Manzella, Chu Heretta, Barb Myers, Bill Schaefer, Sue Shiel and Rick Nicola also did an excellent job. Of course, one man that students of STA, especially the cast of Anastasia, will never forget is Victor Garcia, whose understanding, professionalism and efficiency made "Anastasia" a success.

of Senior Play, "Anastasia"

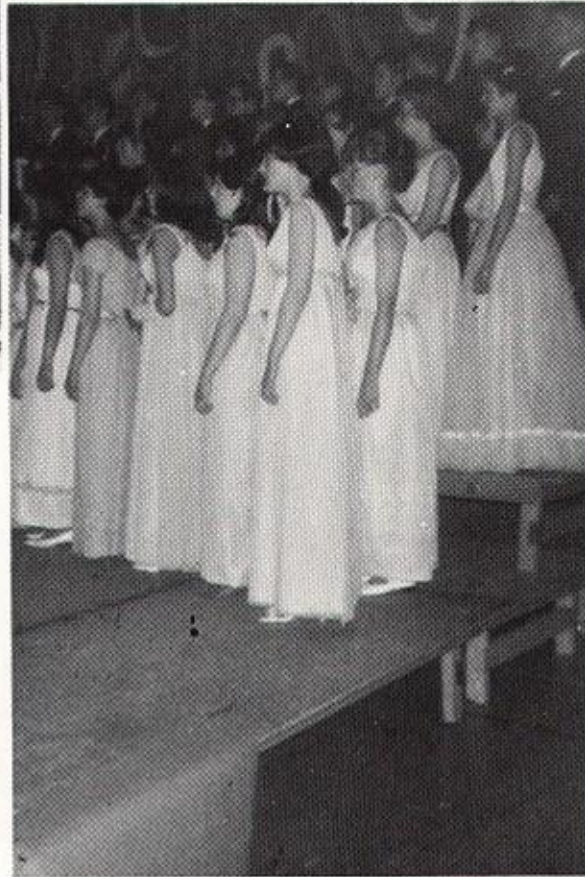

Cast, crew, and audience, particularly seniors, were caught up in the spirit of Anastasia. When the audience and cast loudly applauded and presented Jody with a bouquet of roses, it all came from deep inside each person's heart and from the one united heart of the class of '68, forming another unforgettable memory to cherish.

'68 Knights Hit and Run

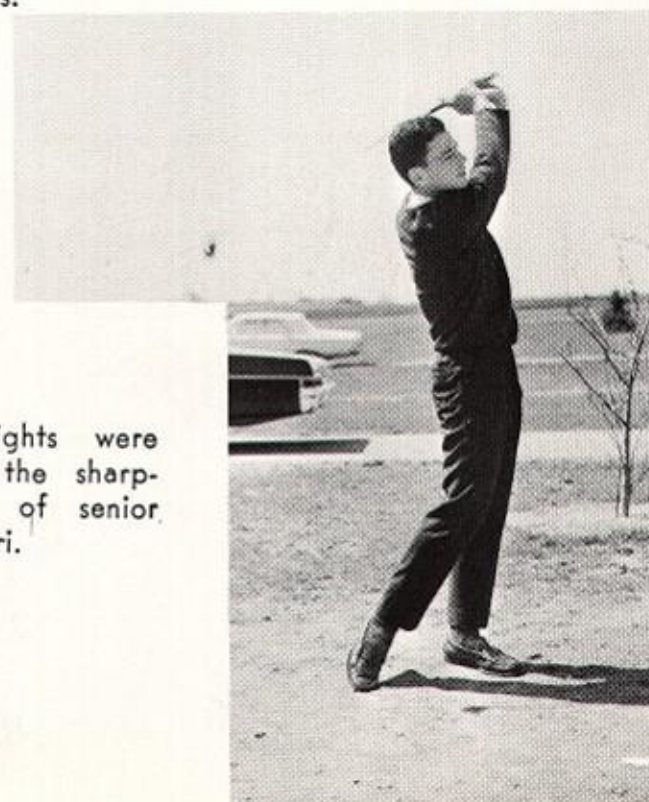

Determination, enthusiasm, and spirited athletes were the main reasons for the fine performances given by both our '68 track and golf squads. The track team, coached by Ken Florian, and the golf squad headed by Tony Congemi, always carried on that attitude of all STA competitors in winning or losing like a Knight.

The Knights were led by the sharp-shooting of senior Don Shori.

Sometimes Athletes . . .

Enthusiasm sparked GAA intramurals, which gave the girls a chance to get a taste of competitive sports.

Cleaning up was a vital part of every GAA camping weekend, but the spirit of friendship, the vitality, and good times far outweigh the "dirty work." Below, senior girls enjoyed the brisk fall air and colorful scenery of Camp Muskingham.

Honor pins and trophies were given out annually to worthy GAA members at the Mother-Daughter banquet.

But Always Girls

Mrs. Barbara Bussard always worked hard to make gym classes, camping trips, banquets, and projects a success and plenty of fun. She always succeeded.

Four Fine Years — Like That Will Last

October 22, 1964

Picture This

Aquinas Holds Hop

IT'S NOT REALLY A CENTRAL DANCE! Just ask any of the four Comet reporters who took these pictures at St. Thomas Aquinas' first dance. Freshmen, the only ones enrolled this year, were greeted in the cafeteria of the new school on Route 62 by the Brothers of Christian Instruction and the Sisters of St. Francis who staff the school.

IF IT FITS, SHE'S HIS. Each girl contributed a shoe for a "shoe dance." From the pile, the boys took a shoe and matched it for a dance. Something we could use?

IT HAD A HAPPY ENDING. At least for most; if you look closely, there seems to be one unfortunate in the crowd.

As pictured in the Comet, Central's school newspaper, Aquinas students can look back on our freshman year and be reminded of the growing up that was developed between September 1964 and June 1968.

September 1964 began the history of a new school and a new people—a very special kind of people—Aquinas people. We were much smaller then, had much more space. Such began that first year of growing up, of making the transition from grade school to high school, of becoming a real individual with real thoughts and beliefs.

Sophomore year was the year that STA had its first upper class. We began to grow older in mind and spirit.

One Shining Moment Forever

Junior year brought our class rings, our ring dance, our first varsity schedule, Student Council elections, our first majorettes and a marching band in uniforms, our first semi-formal, and our cries, "Wait till we're seniors!"

Finally "Aquinas has senior spirit" becomes a reality and the premier class looks forward to graduation. As years pass after June '68, we'll want to remember things like Anastasia, our Central games, homecoming, response weekends, the Republican convention, and more than anything, the unforgettable lessons of life we have learned and the unity and the friendship we have shared as a class over the past four years, like one shining moment that will last forever in our memories.

STA's Premier Prom

With May came the excitement of prom time. It began about 2 pm on Friday, May 10, with the dismissal of excited senior girls. All a part of the enchanted weekend were the pictures at home, tuxes, long gowns and fancy hair, the candlelit Onesto Hotel, the fast-moving, sometimes slow, romantic music of the "Wild Bill," the special touch of Father Reis' organ melodies, especially "Graduation Day."

Despite the constant rain on Saturday, couples made plans for several get-togethers.

Sunday morning, Mass was celebrated by Fr. Reis in the STA chapel. A spirit of unity, gratitude and joy prevailed. Picnics and canoeing were some of the day's activities.

All in all it was a wonderful weekend, special among the memories of the class of '68 and truly a memory to "cherish."

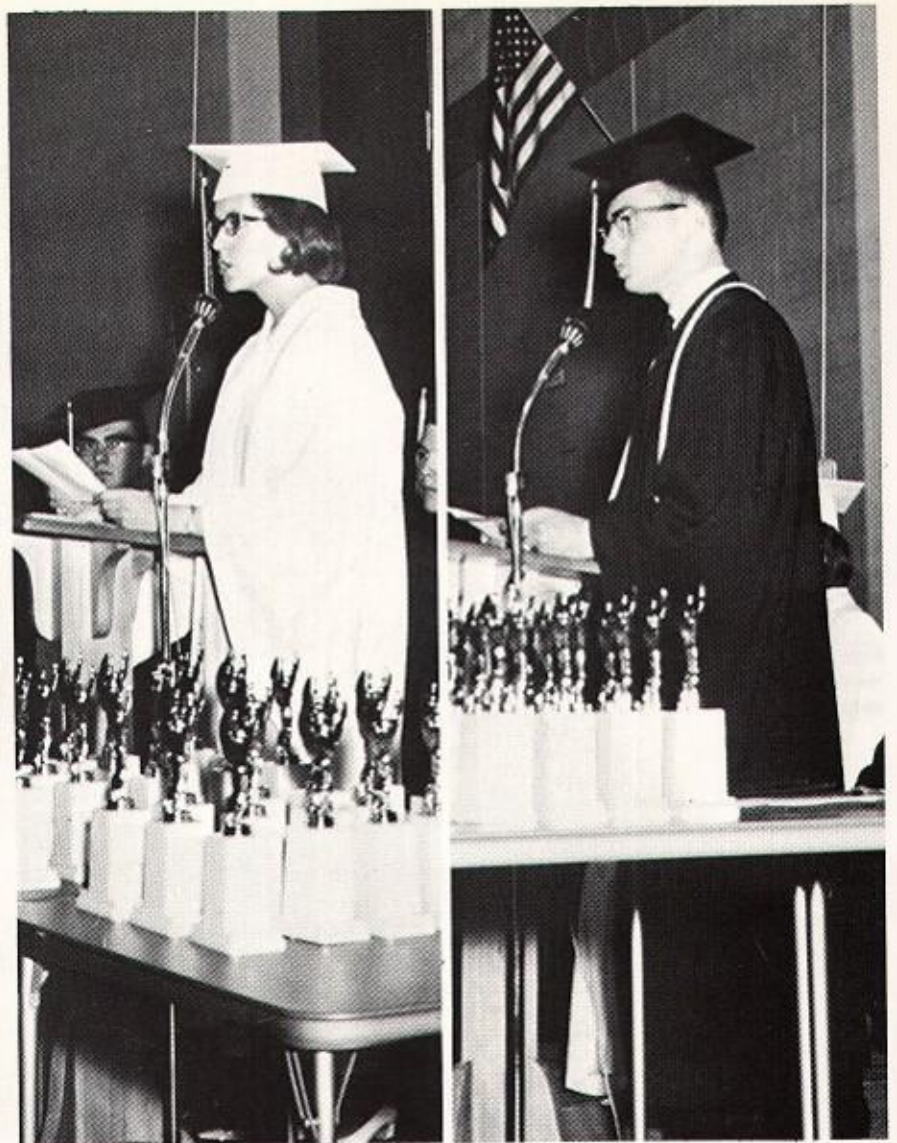

A Time To "Cherish"

Honor Night to Congratulate; Baccalaureate to Spark Christian Enthusiasm

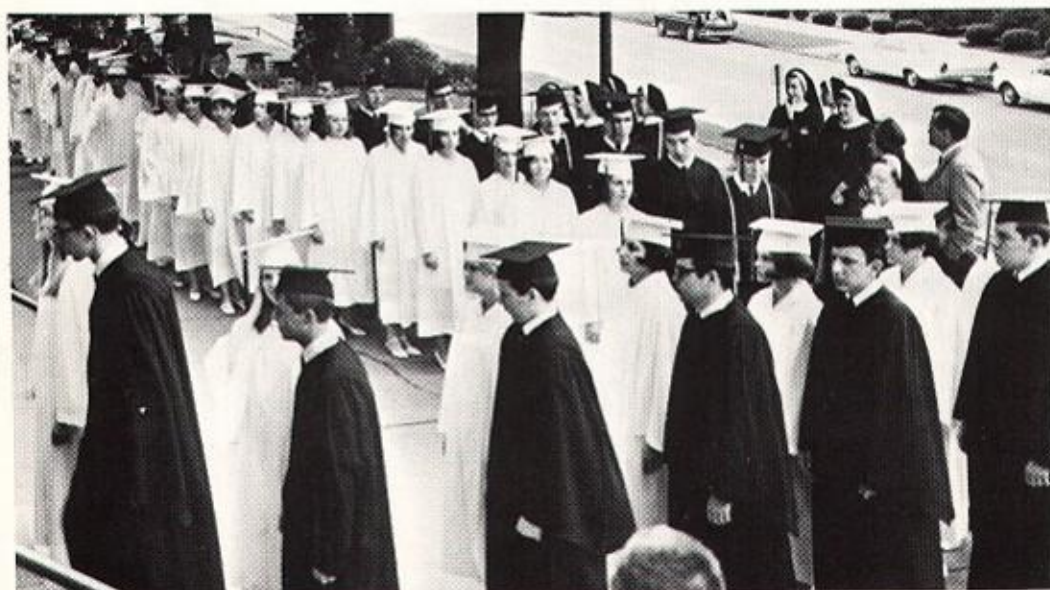

Brother Roland congratulates Dan Kessler upon receiving his bookkeeping and accounting award.

STA premier Valedictorian, Janet Davis, and Salutatorian, Richard Fladung deliver their speeches.

A spirit of unity, gratitude and joy prevailed at Baccalaureate, a concelebrated Mass held in St. Louis Church, Louisville.

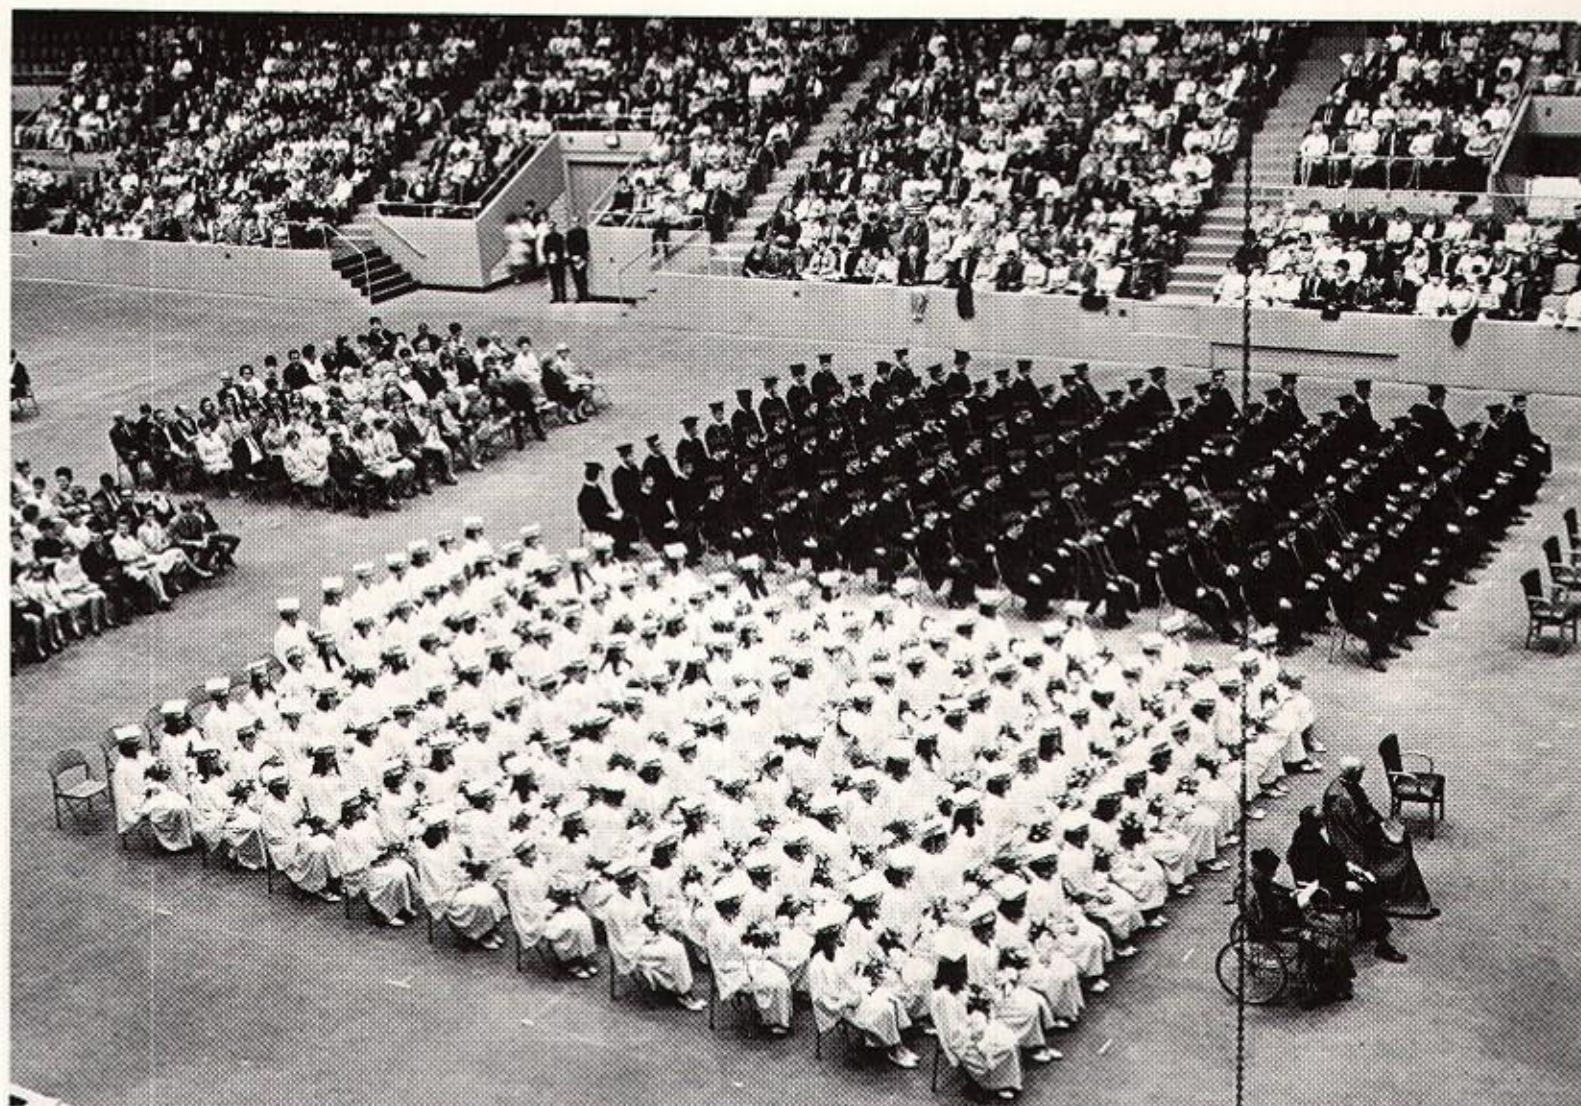

Seniors march into St. Louis Church to share the Mass for the last time.

Msgr. William Hughes, Superintendent of Schools of Youngstown Diocese, speaks to the graduates at Baccalaureate. His inspiring talk centered around the idea of Christian commitment.

Graduation: An End and a Beginning

Class of '68 assembles for the last time, June 2, to receive their diplomas.

The stage of Memorial Auditorium in Canton added to the splendor of the ceremony of the graduation of Saint Thomas Aquinas' premier class.

Seniors Steve Scharf and Becky Schaffner received the Bishop's Religion Award.

It Was a Very Good Year
